REQUEST: Use permit for the use of an existing Single Family Residence as a vacation home rental.

DATE DEEMED COMPLETE: June 16, 2017

LOCATION: 1.5± mi. northwest of Philo center, on the northwest side of Whipple Ridge Road, 0.5± mi. north of its intersection with Hwy 128, located at 7349 Hwy 128 (APN: 014-160-12).

TOTAL ACREAGE: 44.5 acres

GENERAL PLAN: AG:40
ZONING: AG:40
SUPERVISORIAL DISTRICT: 5
ENVIRONMENTAL DETERMINATION: Categorically Exempt; Class 1 (Existing Facilities)
RECOMMENDATION: APPROVE W/ CONDITIONS
STAFF PLANNER: Sam ‘Vandy’ Vandewater

BACKGROUND

PROJECT DESCRIPTION: The applicant is requesting a use permit to allow for the use of their single family residence as a vacation home rental, per Section 20.164.015(L) of the Mendocino County Code. The residence would be used for a short term rental when the applicants are not occupying it.

SITE CHARACTERISTICS: The project site is located just north of the Philo town center, on the east side of California Highway 128 and in the lower hills of Anderson Valley. The home is accessed from Whipple Ridge Road, a private road, which divides the property into a northwestern portion and a southeastern portion; the home is located on the former. The southeastern portion of the property is mostly oak trees and a small ravine that helps with drainage during seasonal rains. The opposing portion is scattered with oak woodlands and hilly terrain that could support some forms of agricultural activities. The only improvements to the property are on the northwest portion of the parcel and include the home, a pool, and accessory structures. Due to the lack of a water or sewage district, the residence relies on well and septic for their water-based utilities.

RELATED APPLICATIONS: There are no related applications on site, or on the neighboring properties that would affect, or be affected by, the proposed vacation home rental.

KEY ISSUES

1. General Plan and Zoning Consistency: The subject parcel is located in a General Plan Land Use Designation of Agriculture (AG). The AG designation is defined by Chapter 3: Development Element of the Mendocino County General Plan and is intended “to be applied to lands which are suited for and are appropriately retained for production of crops; The classification should include lands presently under Type I agricultural preserve contracts, land having present or future potential for significant agricultural production, and contiguous or intermixed smaller parcels on which non-compatible uses could jeopardize the agricultural use of agricultural lands. Permitted non-agricultural uses, to the greatest extent possible, should not occur on lands that might otherwise be devoted to crop production. The policy of the County and the intent of this classification shall be to protect these lands from the pressures of development and preserve them for future use as designated.” While the proposed project does not entail any agricultural activities, it would utilize existing infrastructure thus preventing the development of lands suitable for crop production.

Furthermore, the General Plan outlines a number of uses applicable to the AG Land Use Designation: “Residential uses, farmworker housing, agricultural uses, processing and sale of agricultural products, cottage industries, residential clustering, uses determined to be related to and compatible with agriculture, conservation, processing and development of natural resources, utility installations.” Although the project is commercial in nature (provision of the home in exchange for payment), the use of the property remains somewhat residential, as people will be living in the house for short periods of time. The AG designation also supports cottage industries, which can have more intensive and damaging land uses than the simple habitation of an existing structure.

The Agricultural zoning district, as defined in Chapter 20, states the intent of the district is “to create and preserve areas for the raising of crops and animals. Processing of products produced on the premises would be permitted as would certain commercial activities associated with crop and animal raising. Typically the A-G District would be applied to lands subject to Type I Agricultural Preserve contracts, land having present or future potential for significant agricultural production, and contiguous or intermixed smaller parcels on which non-compatible uses would jeopardize the agricultural use of surrounding lands." While the proposed project does not address or entail any agricultural activities, there is no loss of agricultural land as the guests to the parcel would be using an existing dwelling. This helps the project conform to the zoning district as the use does not jeopardize agricultural uses of the subject parcel or surrounding lands.

2. Nuisances: The proposed project would allow non-residents to inhabit the dwelling for a short term period. This can lead to nuisances to the neighboring properties such as noise problems. Considering the proposed project would allow up to twelve (12) guests to occupy the dwelling, an number of conditions have been included to help mitigate any nuisance issues. Conditions 8 through 14 have been included to address issues regarding potentially excessive uses such as guest capacity and special events.

3. Environmental Protection: The applicant proposes the use of their home as a rental property during periods of non-occupancy by the property owners. The project is Categorically Exempt from the provisions of CEQA, pursuant to Class 1 of Article 19 of the California Environmental Quality Act Guidelines. The Class 1 exemption finds that "the operation, repair, maintenance, permitting, leasing, licensing, or minor alteration of existing public or private structures, facilities, mechanical equipment, or topographical features, involving negligible or no expansion of use beyond that existing at the time of the lead agency's determination." The proposed project meets the criteria of Section 15301 and has been determined to not have a significant effect on the environment and, therefore, be exempt from the provisions of CEQA. The project would not have any adverse impacts on the environment within the meaning of CEQA.

RECOMMENDATION

By resolution, adopt the Categorical Exemption and grant Use Permit U_2017-0010 for the Project based on the approved project description and findings and subject to the conditions of approval in Exhibit A.
