Response to Grand Jury Report

Report Title: In-Home Support Services
Report Date: May 15, 2018
Response by: Heidi Dunham, Director Mendocino County Human Resources

FINDINGS:

F1. The continuous vacancies within all levels of IHSS impairs the ability of this department to function as intended and required.

Unable to Respond: The Human Resources Department (HR) is not involved in the operations of the Health and Human Services Agency (HHSA) or In-Home Support Services (IHSS), therefore cannot offer a response to this finding.

F2. The non-competitive salaries are a major factor in the vacancies.

Partially Disagree: While salary may affect County vacancy rates, many other factors surely contribute as counties across the State have historically experienced a shortage of social workers, including IHSS social workers.

F7. The website does not provide adequate information, which is a barrier to anyone trying to access the program.

Partially Disagree: Human Resources was unable to find a link with IHSS employment information, however, the Mendocino County website’s Human Resources pages have clear links to job openings for social worker positions.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

R1. All IHSS vacancies at the county level be filled in order to implement and manage this program effectively. (F1, F6)

The Mendocino County Human Resources Department actively recruits social workers as requested by HHSA. HR is currently recruiting for three IHSS Social Workers.

HR is not involved in the operations of IHSS, nor do we participate in their recruitment or hiring process.

R2. Adjust salaries to be competitive with other rural counties. (F2, F6)

The social worker series was the subject of a major classification study and reorganization in November of 2017. The resulting changes along with salary increases approved by the Board of Supervisors brought the series from an average of 18% out of market to within 8% of market. Social workers are now paid at a rate higher than both Lake and Humboldt Counties. These employees will have an additional 3% negotiated salary increase in July 2018.

IHSS salaries will be subject to the labor negotiation process with the IHSS employee’s Labor Union.

R5. Change the website to include all pertinent contact information, forms, and complaint procedures and phone numbers. (F7)

HR has a functional web page on the County website with contact information, forms, complaint procedures and phone numbers.

If a functional, local IHSS webpage is developed, HR will create an affiliated agency link on the County’s HR web page for job seekers to access IHSS hiring information.
