What is a Social Bubble and Work Group?

What is a Social Bubble?
This is a stable group of 12 or fewer people who cannot change members for 4 weeks, who can gather for educational or recreational purposes. An individual may be part of one of each of the types of age-appropriate Social Bubbles below. Ones in these Social Bubbles do not have to wear face coverings or practice social distancing from each other, but still must practice good hygiene and stay home if sick.

Categories of Social Bubbles

Household Support Unit (adults and children)
This example of a Social Bubble has 3 different households. The first household has 3 adults, the second household has 2 adults and 4 children, and the third household has 2 adults and 1 child. This Household Support Unit may gather for recreational purposes, also including carpooling, religious services, and etc.

Childcare Unit (children and supervising adults)
This example of a Social Bubble consists of 10 children, and 2 supervising adults, (may have fewer children, but at least one adult must be included). This Social Bubble is stable (unchanging members) for 4 weeks. This Bubble is meant for childcare and educational purposes. No social distancing or facial covering required when they are together inside.

Children's Recreational Activity Unit (children and supervising adults)
This example of a Social Bubble consists of 10 children, and 2 supervising adults, (may have fewer children, but at least one adult must be included). This Social Bubble is stable (unchanging members) for 4 weeks. This Bubble is meant for recreational purposes. No social distancing or facial covering required when they are together inside.

Work Group
A Work Group is 12 or fewer individuals who engage in certain work-related activities, such as employment, volunteer activities and the live-streaming of video-recording of events. This is a stable group, meaning that members cannot change for 4 weeks. Work groups should continue to practice social distancing and wear facial coverings to the extent possible.