RESPONSIBILITY:

Mendocino County is a General Law County governed by the Constitution of the State of California. The Mendocino Board of Supervisors is responsible for exercising its legislative and quasi-judicial authority, within budgetary constraints, to provide for the health, welfare and safety of the residents of Mendocino County. This is accomplished through regular and special Board meetings, by community outreach and interaction with their constituents, and by serving on a number of local, regional and state boards and commissions.

BACKGROUND:

Supervisor Brown is a lifelong resident of Mendocino County who has resided on her family's Potter Valley ranch for the last 41 years. Supervisor Brown represents constituents in Mendocino County's First Supervisorial District, which is composed of Potter Valley, Redwood Valley, Calpella, Talmage, and other portions of the Ukiah valley.

Supervisor Brown served as the executive administrator of the Mendocino County Farm Bureau for 23 years and has dedicated her lifetime of public service to working with the County's youth, seniors, families, special districts, local and regional governments.

Supervisor Brown represents the Board through numerous assignments, including the California State Association of Counties Board of Directors, Eel-Russian River Commission, and the Rural County Representatives of California Board of Directors, to name a few.

DISTRICT INFORMATION::

The First Supervisorial District, located in the inland region of Mendocino County, represents approximately 9,840 constituents.
